

By the Faith of the Son of God
09/10/13

I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Galatians 2:20 KJV

This scripture has been on my mind and in my heart for the past year. There hasn't been a week that has gone by that this verse has not been heavy in my mind. Sometimes not a day.

I prayed about a year ago for God to show me how to live this scripture out. I've read this scripture many times but about a year ago my spirit resonated with this living Word and it became life to me and continues to be.

I know before I type any farther that my flesh is not able to fully articulate what my spirit encompasses in this scripture. But I must express my heart about this scripture.

Oh where to start...

Everything in us must be put to death and live no longer.

We must crucify our flesh, our mind, get rid of our stinking thinking and put on the mind of Christ.

It must be Christ that is revealed in everything we think, everything we do, our hearts compassion for everyone around us should leap out from our inner being, come through our flesh and minister to the needs of that individual.

Christ was moved by compassion and what did he do while he was here? He pointed everyone to the Truth. The Truth was Him, the truth that you don't have to be in bondage to Satan any longer, the Truth that freedom from everything in the world is found in Him.

So many of us allow the father of lies to scare us into not having and using the mustard seed of faith to believe and do. We can believe in God but the ballgame is completely different to believe what He says is true. We have lived so long with other humans who fail us, who lie to us, who ... But Jesus is nothing like this. He is TRUTH.

It is not us who have to perform, who must have a mountain of faith, who must be a huge mustard plant; we must simple believe that Jesus can do what He said

He can do. "I live by the faith of the Son of God", it is not my faith it is Jesus' faith. All I have to do is believe Jesus can do what He says He can do and then step aside and let Him do it. And yes, He will be doing it using your person.

Jesus loved us and gave himself for us. Live by the faith of the Son of God and not your own faith.

Oh Heavenly Faith I pray in the name of Jesus Christ reveal to us how to get rid of our stinking thinking and put on the mind of Christ, to live out "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me." In Jesus' name I pray Amen.
